

Light up the Night 2025

All under 16s must always be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Under 16s are not permitted to take part in this event unsupervised. Under 16s and a parent or guardian must have corresponding information before taking part in the event.

If the Participant can no longer attend, the Participant is not entitled to a refund. Refunds will be at the discretion of the Organiser, and cancellations must be given in writing to events@walesbyforest.org.uk by Saturday 25th October 2025. No refunds will be offered after the event on Saturday 8th November 2025 at 17:00.

The Participant must be medically able to take part in this event. The event is accessible to those in wheelchairs, and support can be accessed at the point of registration. The Participant consents to any medical treatment being administered during the event by official medically qualified personnel. If the Participant suffers from any medical condition, it is their responsibility to inform the Organiser and to wear medical information in an accessible location, such as a necklace or wristband stating information that medically qualified personnel must know.

The Organiser shall not be liable for any injury or loss occurring as a result of participation in the event (including, without limitation, any losses resulting from the Organiser's negligence), provided that nothing in these terms and conditions shall exclude or limit the Organiser's liability for death or personal injury resulting from the Organiser's negligence or for any other type of liability that cannot be excluded or limited by law.

The Organiser accepts no liability for the state or condition of the surfaces upon which the event is held.

Roller skates, skateboards, scooters, bikes etc. are not permitted, and those attempting to enter will be refused entry to the event.

By agreeing to our Terms and Conditions, the Participant agrees to the Organiser storing their personal data, including name, address, email address, date of birth, telephone numbers, and emergency contacts. This includes participants 'and volunteers' use of this information for the purpose of organising the event. Personal data will not be used for marketing purposes unless marketing consent is received.

In compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) the Participant has the right of access to their personal records held on the Organiser's computer. The Participant also authorises the Organiser to disclose their information for medical purposes on the day of the Event. All Organiser third party providers adhere to GDPR and will not use third party data for marketing purposes unless consent has been received.

The Organisers will not accept any form of abuse or verbal assaults through any communications prior to the event taking place or on the day to fellow attendees or people associated with the running of the event.

The Organiser reserves the right to cancel the event up to two weeks before the event if insufficient applications are received, or if the event is no longer economically viable.

If the event is cancelled in accordance with the condition above, the Organiser shall not be liable for any losses incurred by a Participant as a result of cancellation of the event, except that the Participant may request a refund or credit of the entry fee within 30 (thirty) days from receipt of notification by email to the Participants.

Event cancellation – Force Majeure:

For the purposes of these terms and conditions, a “Force Majeure Event” means an event beyond the reasonable control of the Organiser, including but not limited to: strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving the workforce of the Organiser or others), failure of a utility service or transport network, act of God, war, riot, civil commotion, malicious damage, compliance with any law or governmental order, rule, regulation, direction or action by a government or public authority, accident, breakdown of plant or machinery, fire, inclement weather, flood, storm, communicable disease, national mourning for over 65’s, nuclear risks and chemical and biological weapons, act of terrorism, demonstration, march, request of an authoritative body such as the police or fire service, any order of repatriation, internment, imprisonment, deportation or the refusal of permit to enter any country where the event is to be held, seepage and/or pollution and/or contamination or default of the Organiser or subcontractors.

If, as a result of a Force Majeure Event, the Organiser deems in its sole discretion that it is necessary to cancel, postpone, even during the period of the event occurring, the Organiser shall be entitled to cancel, postpone, or change the Event.

If, as a result of Force Majeure event, the event is cancelled or postponed, the Participant will not be offered a refund.

The Organiser reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions, and the up-to-date terms shall be available on the Website.

The Participant accepts all conditions of entry set out or notified to them prior to the event or displayed at the event or any instruction given by the Organisers or officials. The Participant acknowledges that the Organisers and external agencies shall have no liability for any loss or damage they may suffer, including consequential or indirect loss as a consequence of their participation in the event (including but not limited to travelling to and from the event and during the event).
